A GREAT MILITARY EVENT.

THE SECOND DAY OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL CENTENNIAL.

Thirty Thousand Soldiers in Line Presenting a Gorgeous Spectacle of Our Nation's Defenders, Led By General

■ PHIL. SHERIDAN—The President's Speech.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—The second day of the Constitutional Centennial celebration opened bright and clear. Since daybreak the streets have been thronged with people. The sounds of fife and drum, which were heard long before the tired visitors had arisen, announced that preparations were being made for the grand military parade. The streets are filled with soldiers, who have come from almost every state in the union to participate in to-day's military pageant.

It is estimated that fully thirty thousand soldiers passed in review by midday, led by Gen. Phil Sheridan. The lowest calculations place the number of visitors in the city at 500,000, and notwithstanding the immense influx not a serious accident has occurred to mar the occasion.

The procession went through the principal streets, and a greater number of people were given an opportunity to witness the display than that allowed by yesterday's pageant, which was confined wholly to Broad street. The same display of flags and hunting which marked the first day of the celebration is seen. In addition to the stands on Broad street several have been erected on Chestnut, Market and Arch streets. All of the thoroughfares through which the parade passed were roped off, and a strong force of policemen was distributed at an early hour along the line of march.

The escort of President Cleveland, the first city troops of cavalry, under Captain Grubbs, reached the Lafayette hotel long before 9 o'clock this morning, and shortly afterward the committee of the commercial exchange drove up in carriages and paid their respects to the President. The city troops cleared a passage for the party, and Mr. Cleveland, leaning on the arms of Messrs. Thompson and Jamison, entered the carriage waiting for them. The members of the committee followed, and the whole party went clattering down Chestnut street: At the custom house the inspectors and other employees were drawn up in line and reviewed by the president. The streets were almost impassable, and when the exchange was reached it required all the efforts of the soldiers to clear a way in the building. In the meantime the members of the exchanges and the board of trade had assembled in the large hall and were listening to music.

The arrival of the presidential party was the signal for repeated cheering, and when the chief magistrate made his way to the rostrum at the lower end of the hall the cheering broke out again, and the names of Secretary Bayard, Governor Beaver, George W. Childs, Mayor Fetter and A. J. Drexel were also cheered. Chairman Brooke announced that as soon as the president had spoken a few words the members would be given a chance to meet him.

President Conny introduced the president. The cheering broke out again, and it was some time before Mr. Cleveland could be heard. He said:

"I am glad to be here to-day, and have the opportunity of meeting so large a representation of the business men of Philadelphia. It is well for us not to entirely forget the claims of patriotism in the rush of business life, and such occasions as this are fraught with great good to our common country. The objects of good government tend to increase the material prosperity of the country. It has often occurred to me that in the hurry and rush of business we are apt to forget the claims of good government. It would be well if business men remember that a wholesome political sentiment is closely related to business success. I would be glad to see a little more of a broad, patriotic sentiment in the business world.

"It would be well in striving for the success of the whole nation that a man should sometimes sacrifice his individual interests. To-day we celebrate such a triumph of patriotism over selfishness. Does anyone doubt to-day that the constitution of one hundred years ago was well made and that the work was well done? The same condition of affairs, that is, sinking self in patriotism, would exist to-day if our business men would cultivate a wholesome political sentiment and sometimes forget sordid and selfish interest. I believe that nowhere can these sentiments be better established than among the alert, active, enterprising business men of Philadelphia."

Mr. Cleveland, after his speech, announced himself as being ready to meet the gentlemen present, and one by one they walked up to the rostrum and grasped his hand, and then shook hands with Secretaries Bayard and Fairchild, ex-President Hayes, Governor Beaver, Mayor Fetter, A. J. Drexel and George W. Childs, who received with him. After the reception the presidential party drove to the reviewing stand to witness the military parade.

A Child Burned to Death.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 17.—At Haley, Tenn., last night Ben Rippay's house was burned and one of his children perished in the flames. Rippay is a widower, and was absent when the house took fire. He returned in time to rescue two of his children, but the third perished. The children had built a fire in the kitchen stove, laid down on the bed and fallen asleep. It is supposed the house caught fire from the stove.

Killed By a Caving Sower

PORT WYNE, Ind., Sept. 17.—A sewer being constructed on Griffith street caved in on three laborers. Two of the men escaped serious injury. The third, Henry C. Tilberry, aged seventeen years, was so severely injured that he died soon after.

"AMERICA FOR AMERICANS."

Object and Aim of the New Political Organization.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—In accordance with the call recently issued by the executive committee of the new political party organized in this city under the name of the "American party," the first National convention assembled in this city to-day and tomorrow. The convention is called together for the purpose of completing the organization and for the promotion among others of the following specific objects:

"To emphasize and perpetuate the sentiment—America for Americans. The restriction of immigration. A thorough revision of the naturalization laws. Reserving American lands for American citizens only. The protection of Americans on all their rights on land or sea in all parts of the world. To restrict and guard the right of elective franchise. To enact and enforce such laws as will tend to eradicate intemperance. To develop the resources of the country by a wise system of internal improvements. To protect and promote the American system of free common schools. To adjust the relations between labor and capital on a permanent basis of equity and justice."

The call concludes by saying, "Especially do we invite the representatives and members of the following organizations to meet and co-operate with us in said convention, viz.: The Patriotic Order Sons of America, the Junior order of United American Mechanics, the order of United American Mechanics, the Order of Deputies, the Sons of the Revolutionary Sires, the Political Alliance, the United Minute Men, the various Granges and all other orders and organizations whose principles and sentiments will enable them to work in the American party on the basis proposed."

The procession went through the principal streets, and a greater number of people were given an opportunity to witness the display than that allowed by yesterday's pageant, which was confined wholly to Broad street. The same display of flags and hunting which marked the first day of the celebration is seen. In addition to the stands on Broad street several have been erected on Chestnut, Market and Arch streets. A Child Burned to Death.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Sept. 17.—Nathaniel Collins, a section hand on the Pan-Handle railroad, became intoxicated about midnight last night and laid down on the Pan-Handle railroad track just west of this city to sleep. A freight train came along and mangled his body beyond recognition. Collins was a brother of Dr. J. W. Collins, of Toronto, this county, and lived at Gould's Tunnel.

A Missouri Murder.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 17.—Charles McNichols and Joseph Chamberlain, brothers-in-law, last night on the exposition grounds, engaged in a fight over some family affair and both men drew knives. Chamberlain received a slight cut in the side of the neck, while McNichols was partially disembowled, dying at 10 p. m. Chamberlain is in jail.

TO SAVE THE ANARCHISTS.

EFFORTS IN THEIR BEHALF BEING MADE IN NEW YORK.

The Governor of Illinois to Be Waited Upon By a Labor Delegation—Henry George Has Not Yet Expressed an Opinion—A National Protest to Be Made.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Tall of an effort to save the condemned Anarchists' necks is already heard in this city. It is almost certain that next Sunday's meeting of the Central Labor union will be attended by a more or less earnest discussion of the decision in the Anarchist case. It is also confidently asserted by friends of the Anarchists in this city that the Central Labor union will, as body, formally declare its disagreement with the decision and its sympathy with the condemned. At the same meeting an effort will be made to inaugurate a National protest of the labor organizations of the country.

Samuel Gompers, who is president of the American federation of labor, will be present at the meeting to represent the Anarchists, which is intended to expand into a National assembly of the laboring men for executive clemency. The plan is to choose a certain day next month on which the labor men in every state in the Union will meet and pass resolutions denouncing the verdict and expressing sympathy with the doomed men. October 14 is already suggested.

Each of these meetings is to elect a delegate who will meet with the other delegates chosen. The delegates will then go in a body to Springfield, Ill., and call on Governor Oglesby. They will present to him a petition of American workingmen. Stress will be laid on the condition of the public feeling in Chicago at the time the seven policemen were killed. They will claim they didn't have a fair trial, that the excited passions of the people united with the clamor of the press for the heads of the prisoners prevented the latter from getting a fair trial, and that furthermore an unprejudiced jury was out of the question. Attention will also be drawn to the fact that most of the condemned men were admitted not to have attended the meeting at which the bomb was thrown. It is hoped that in this way Governor Oglesby may be induced to grant a commutation of the sentence of death to imprisonment for life or even for twenty years. The governor moreover is said to be of a wavering disposition. Besides the attempt in this direction to save the Anarchists the project of carrying the case into the supreme court of the United States is also considered, but it is believed that the first project is the one more likely to succeed.

Louis Post and John McMackin are the only prominent United Labor men who have as yet expressed any opinion. Henry George yesterday said he had no opinion to offer just yet. The Standard, which was published to-day, contained no allusion to the Anarchist fate. Not a little speculation is indulged in as to what George and Dr. McGlynn will say.

Anarchists of the Herr Most type are loud in their appeals for revenge against the prosecutors of the condemned men. Anarchist sympathizer and a personal friend of five of the doomed men last night drew attention to what has been done in similar cases in the past. He referred to the case of the Prosecutor Rainford, the Nihilist, who was convicted in Germany as the principal in the plot to blow up the Niedervald monument during the dedication in the presence of the Emperor. The man who ferreted out the Rainford fastened on him the evidence which convicted him was Rumpf, the chief of police of Frankfort-on-the-Main. Rumpf's dead body was found not long after in front of his house with a dagger in his heart.

A similar fate befel the police officer in Russia who prosecuted Stellmacher, the Anarchist, who was beheaded for a plot against the czar. There is no doubt that the Anarchists in this country are wildly excited, and in the event of the death of the doomed men a revenge similar to that visited on the two police officers mentioned above was last night suggested to your correspondent as not improbable in the case of State Attorney Grainger, of Illinois, who prosecuted the Anarchists. The Volks Zeitung, the organ of the Socialists in this city, printed an editorial yesterday entitled: "Es darf nicht sein," which may be interpreted with the words "It shall not be" or "You dare not." The Volks Zeitung thinks the sentence in the first place was based on class hatred. "Now that a year has passed and passion has had time to cool off and got the confirmation of that unheard of sentence, impartial historians will describe the episode, if the men are hanged as the blackest spot in American history on par with the execution of John Brown and the assassination of Abraham Lincoln."

Pensions and Pensioners.

The Government now has 446,231 pensioners, a net increase of 40,224 during the past fiscal year.

The aggregate annual value of all pensions is $52,824,641, an increase of like value for the year of $8,116,633. The amount paid for pensions during the year was $75,465,581, an increase in amount over the previous year of $9,669,750.

The amount paid to 44,019 new pensioners during the year upon first payment was $25,166,090. During the year 55,194 original certificates were issued, a greater number than was ever before issued by the bureaus in any one year.

The estimates for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1888, aggregate $70,045,230. The appropriation for the last fiscal year was $73,701,250.

The State of Kentucky has 10,452 pensioners, and is paid quarterly $313,089.50, or a million and a quarter annually.

From the cry that is going up for more pensions it begins to look like the old soldiers "want the earth."

Is the war being fought over again? The other time it was for principles, and now it seems somebody is fighting mighty hard for revenue.

If the two wings of the Democratic party act wisely they will agree to a compromise of the tariff question.

"Little Breeches" is a little hot-headed demagogue who thinks that the success of his party depends upon keeping alive the bitter memories of the war times.

Out of eighty-two counties that had paid their taxes for 1887 into the State Treasury at last accounts, Mason stands fifth so far as the amount is concerned. Of the $1,300,000 reported, $295,000 came from Jefferson, $90,000 from Fayette, $80,000 from Kenton, $50,000 from Bourbon, $38,000 from Mason and $34,000 from Woodford County. There are thirty-seven counties yet to report.

The pellets operate thoroughly but harmlessly, establishing a permanently healthy action of the stomach and bowels, and as an anti-bilious remedy are unequalled.

In all such cases Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will speedily effect a genuine, radical cure—make a new man of you and save you from the tortures of lingering disease.

Fat hogs are going at $4.50; stockers, $3.50 per hundred.

Mr. C. C. Cole, of Moorefield, was here Monday en route for Cincinnati to lay in his fall goods.

Alex. McDowell put his farm on the market Saturday last. It was bid up to $49 per acre and withdrawn. It is part of the Calvin Bland farm.

Miss Alice M. Bailey, one pleasant California visitor, has an engagement to visit Miss Lulu Morris, Mt. Sterling, and Miss Ella King, Winchester, and will be absent some weeks.

W. T. Cole is wrestling with a combined attack of dumb ague and asthma. He is making a strenuous effort to fire it out with Electric Bitters. He thinks of trying the galvanic battery.

Our gay and festive widower, J. B. Allison, of "Needmore," has returned from his Indiana tour. He met many handsome widows in the Hoosier State, but none that got away with his heart's girl.

Our young widow friend, Mr. Azro Grover, won the gallant escort of Miss Hattie Richman, our Illinois visitor, on Monday evening and drove over the highlands of the North Fork, and took tea with Miss Linnie Fleming.

Our Mayville and Olivet bus is crowded with passengers of mornings, and in the evenings with freight and passengers. Mr. Henry Jefferson alternated with Mr. Tom Anderson as conductor, and the public is at a loss to tell which of the two is the more accommodating.

We have good news for the friends of dear Little Annie Reed, the afflicted daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Browning. A gentleman who saw her last week says she is well satisfied with her home—stands up bravely and will walk before long. She is at the Surgical Institute, Indianapolis.

Mr. Tom Cole, after an absence of two years, has returned from his California wanderings. He was delighted with the climate, and is an adept at mountain deer. He married Miss John A. Peeler on his return to an acre farm in Mercer County, and has gathered and weighed his crop of wheat amounting to 29,500 bushels. It was cut, threshed and sacked with three combined machines, twenty-six animals to each machine, four men on each machine, one driver, three sack sowers, three header runners, four separator tenders—twenty feet each. He has photographs of all the farm machinery used in California.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shephard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklin's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklin's Arnica Salve at 25c per box by J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co. of Aberdeen Ohio.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottles of this standard remedy at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co. of Aberdeen Ohio.

MEETING OF METHODISTS.

Second Day's Proceedings of the Kentucky Conference at Covington.

There was an increased attendance on the second day of the Conference.

Dr. Ralston spoke in the interest of the Southern Publishing House at Nashville. The house during the past ten years has recovered from a debt of over $300,000, and all the outstanding bonds are now being called in.

Dr. Morton, of Louisville, Secretary of the Board of Church Extensions, was introduced and addressed the Conference on that question. He spoke principally of the good work that had been accomplished in the mountain regions during the past year.

The following were continued as supernumeraries: G. B. Poage, J. C. Minor, G. N. Buffington, R. Deering, H. M. Linney.

The following were continued as superannuates: T. N. Ralston, J. C. Hardy, W. McD. Abbott, D. Welbourn, B. Kavanaugh, B. F. Bristol. The following were admitted on trial: Joseph N. Ison, W. Franklin Wyatt, George W. Crutchfield, Asa McNell, Elzaphin Richards, George Bond Kendall, W. L. Stamper, W. M. Derickson and Oscar F. Duvall.

Both boards this year helped 232 churches, paying them loan funds, whose capital stock is $34,468.12. Last year they helped 232 churches, paying them $35,890.24. They have seven distinct 301 28, and their assets $15,698.50.

A Big Fortune.

Messrs. Roberts & Stanley, lawyers of Upper Marlboro, Prince George County, Maryland, are advertising for the heirs of Thomas C. Bean, who left that State for the west in 1843. An exchange from Maryland says the Bean estate is estimated to be worth from $2,000,000 to $10,000,000. Mr. Robert Bean, of Dayton, Ky., who has been in this city for several days in the interest of the National Benefit Association, received a copy of the advertisement yesterday. It is thought that he and his brother, W. W. Bean, of Dayton, and also the Bean family living near Orangeburg, this county, are among the heirs being sought for by Roberts & Stanley.

Round Trip Tickets.

The BULLETIN did an injustice yesterday to the Kentucky Central Railroad Company, as well as to the local agents of the road, and we gladly take the first opportunity of righting the wrong. Our informant led us to believe that the local agents had had no round trip tickets on sale for the past week, but this, we learn, was not the case. Their supply was out only two days, and it was through no fault of themselves, nor of the company. Agents make their requisition for tickets on the 10th of every month, and Messrs. Ficklin Bros. made theirs as usual on the regular date this month. Travel has been unusually heavy on the road for several weeks, partly on account of the low stage of water in the river and partly on account of the excursions to the recent fairs and to "Rome under Nero," and the company has been rushed to meet the requisition from their agents for tickets. This is the sum and substance of the whole trouble. The company has not been taking advantage of the public. On the contrary, we are assured it is offering lower rates on some classes of business now than it usually does.

Messrs. Ficklin Bros. received a fresh supply of tickets last night.

LOCKE—Grant.

Miss Anna L. Grant, daughter of Squire John L. Grant, was married last evening to Dr. Frederick J. Locke, of Newport. The groom arrived from his home at Newport on the late train, and the marriage took place shortly afterwards at the residence of the bride's parents on West Third street. Rev. Russell Cecil, of the Central Presbyterian Church, officiated, the ceremony being witnessed only by the family, and a few intimate friends of the parties.

After the ceremony, the guests were served with a wedding supper. The bridal party left on the noon train for Newport. The groom is a prominent physician of that city.

THE POSITION OF HOLLAND

SHE IS SLOWLY AND SURELY HOLDING HER OWN.

What is Likely to Occur to the Little Country in the Event of the Death of King William—Twenty Persons Killed By a Railroad Collision—Cable Notes.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The announcement that the king of Holland is so low that his death may be expected at any moment, has caused the aspirations of many a continental statesman to take an upward tendency. Holland, with her colonies, would be a valuable acquisition to any country, and although it quietly jogs along in the race for advancement and gain, hedged in between its dikes and ditches, this sturdy little country manages to hold her own bravely. Though passed by her swift and more brilliant contemporaries, Holland slowly but surely is coming on, and is now no mean rival of her European cousins.

The death of King William may give rise to an opportunity for the settlement of a dispute, and when the powers undertake to settle any dispute concerning the throne of a little country like Holland they generally take in charge the future management of its affairs. The little Princess Wilhelmina, only seven years of age, is heir to the throne, but she is also in the line of succession to the Luxembourg throne, and here may arise the trouble. The princess herself, who is a little flaxen-haired Dutch girl, would be content with a doll or a new toy, but it is the misfortune of royal personages not to have the choosing of their own future or to be able to satisfy their own likes and dislikes. Their sponsors do this for them, and the sponsors of the little princess may plunge their protégé into complications that will give the powers an excuse to step in and settle matters, which really means an opportunity to get a finger in the pie. And the richness of the pie will be a rare attraction.

It is vaguely rumored that Bismarck has long had his eye on the low country and that he desires no better opportunity to realize his longings than the death of King William. But any attempt to appropriate the country or to annex it to Germany will have the effect upon the Duke builders of "getting up their dutch." Though they have been at peace since 1859, their army is no mean one, and at present their land and naval service is strong and well equipped and any move to swallow them up would meet with a determined resistance. But the strength against outside encroachment of a small country like the Netherlands does not lack in her defensive forces, but rather in the cupidity of her powerful neighbors. There is no danger of one country appropriating Holland. This is the real safety of the small countries of Europe. What one wants they all want, and no one is likely to get a large slice since another.

TOOK THREE YEARS TO DO IT.

Highly Successful Swindle Worked By a Chicago Man.

MONTGOMERY, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Probably one of the most gigantic frauds ever perpetrated on the public has recently been consummated by the publisher of a Chicago monthly medical journal. Three years ago this publisher made a proposition to several thousand country newspapers to insert his advertisement, in return for which he would send his paper without charge as a premium to all who paid the country publishers a year's subscription in advance or otherwise.

Every publisher that accepted his offer availed himself of the privilege of having the monthly sent free to all his subscribers. Three years passed and it was then time to spring the trap. At the end of the first year the Chicago man did not cease to send his paper to all who were not wise enough to have it stopped. When he supposed he had them between two or three years in his debt, he notified his subscribers by means of blue envelopes from the Chicago & Cook County collective agency, 172 LaSalle street, to pay immediately from $2 to $3 in order to save suit. A large meeting was held here last evening by the indignant blue envelope holders, who resolved to fight it out. It is said that Newburg was struck for $20,000, and how extensively the game was played throughout the United States is not to be ascertained.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 17.—At an early hour this morning while the family of Dominick Messena, a grocer, were asleep an explosion occurred in his store. The entire building was soon on fire and all escape from the upper stories, where the family resided, was cut off. The firemen were soon at the scene, but they could do nothing. The entire family, consisting of Messena, his wife and four little children, perished in the flames. The fire must have been burning sometime before the explosion, which was doubtless caused by the igniting of some powder kept for sale.

A Brave Little Boy.

BETHEL, O., Sept. 17.—The narrow escape of James Larsh's son, Eddie, was witnessed by several citizens of Bethel yesterday, as he was thrown under a passing steam thresher, and by a heroic effort of one so young, being only seven, threw himself in such a position to escape having his head crushed, and was rescued with a broken arm and several bruises and scratches, but not fatally hurt, although thought to have been killed. He is getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Abbott, of Bethel.

Window Glass Manufacturers' Meeting.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 17.—At a meeting of the Western Window Glass Manufacturers, held here yesterday, a report was read showing the condition of trade to be unsatisfactory; that while the assortment in the hands of the jobbers is immense, the rebate system and the price of glass were due, but no change made. In regard to wages, it was decided impossible to grant any increase. The wage committee was never clothed with power.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

What the Amount of the Bond Purchase has Already Reached.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Applications for the prepayment of interest to the amount of $1,500,000 have been received at the treasury department, making the total to date of $94,527,650. Since Secretary Fairchild, on August 3, in his circular letter, invited proposals for the sale of four-and-a-half per cent bonds to the government, $82,244,700 have been offered, of which $10,500,000 have been purchased. By the purchase of these bonds and the saving in the interest, which would accrue before the bonds mature, it is estimated at the treasury department that the government has made over $1,000,000.

McGargie Safe in Canada.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Secretary Bayard transmitted to the president his official report on the application of the state of Illinois for the extradition of McGargie. The secretary takes the position that there is absolutely no ground upon which the United States can interfere. The conspiracy for McGargie's rescue was planned and executed in the United States, and the fact that British subjects were engaged in it and a British vessel employed as a means of escape from our jurisdiction to do nothing to create a state of things warranting the general government in asking for McGargie's surrender.

The Navy Yard's New Commander.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Capt. Richard W. Meade, the new commandant of the navy yard, assumed command yesterday. He was met at the commandant's office by Capt. Wallace, whom he succeeds, and the officers of the yard, attired in undress uniform with side arms. After a formal turning over of the command, Capt. Meade received the congratulations of those present and then took possession of his new quarters, lately vacated by Capt. Wallace.

Judicious Legislation Necessary.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—In a supplement to his annual report Gen. Johnston, commissioner of railroads, reports to the secretary of the interior that the slow rate of increase of the sinking fund proves that existing laws are inadequate to produce sums sufficient to pay the debts of the subsidized companies to the government, and adds that judicious new legislation will be necessary to provide even for the annual repayment of the interest of the subsidy bonds.

Will Not Accept the Compromise.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Acting Secretary of the Interior Muirrow has recommended to the attorney general that the compromise offered by the Sierra Lumber company, of California, in the timber trespass suits now pending, be rejected and that the suits for the recovery of $2,217,254 be vigorously prosecuted.

Eighteen Yellow Fever Patients.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—A statement prepared at the marine hospital shows that since May last, when yellow fever appeared at Key West, Fla., there have been 232 cases and sixty-two deaths. There are now eighteen patients under treatment there.

Premier Norquay.

Informed in New York That There is Fear of a Financial Crisis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 17.—An interview with Premier Norquay at Winnipeg says that he intended to have remained in New York until Wednesday. He says that capital is bound up. Bankers had told him that funds were tied up tight. Investors had fear of some impending crisis. Norquay added that he did not think this was said by money lenders with a view to bluff him off. What the particulars of his work were he would not say, as it would be indecent for him to place his antagonists in possession of his scheme. He was to have got a final answer Wednesday. His next move is unknown.

A strong point brought out during the argument of the Browning injunction is the following: That when at Ottawa Sir John Macdonald asked the Winnipeg delegates why Norquay did not go ahead and build the road, leaving a space at the boundary wide enough for a shilling piece, and that the question would then become an international one and settle itself. In view of this and similar encouragement given to Manitoba's representatives, the Dominion occupies an unenviable position.

Suicide of a Georgia Mayor.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 17.—Shelburne is a town of a few hundred inhabitants in Randolph county. Great excitement was created in the village yesterday morning by the sensational suicide of George Oliver, the respected mayor of the place. Mr. Oliver entered the telegraph office, of which a Miss Lancaster was manager, and, without explaining his purpose, quietly unrolled a scrap of paper containing strychnine and swallowed the poison. The young lady immediately divined the insane intention of the mayor, but before she could summon assistance he drew a revolver from his pocket, and, placing the muzzle over the region of his heart, fired. He was dead before medical aid arrived. No motive for the rash act is assigned. Mr. Oliver was well known in the state.

Had a Close Call.

TIPPON, Ind., Sept. 17.—The wife of Charles Smith, residing two miles south of this city, noticing the absence of her two-year-old child yesterday, went out to look for it, and found it hanging in an old well near the house, its clothes having caught on a hook projecting from the side of the well, used to hang milk pails and vessels containing vegetables on to keep them cool. The child was uninjured when found, and was making frantic efforts to reach its image in the water below.

Reception to Cardinal Gibbons.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17.—Cardinal Gibbons was accorded a brilliant reception at the Catholic club last evening. The parlors of the club were handsomely decorated. When the cardinal arrived at 8:30 he found Governor Beaver and staff awaiting and a pleasant greeting followed. His eminence for a time received his guests standing, but tiring of this he seated himself in a large arm chair. About 10 o'clock President Cleveland called. He was accompanied by Secretaries Bayard and Fairchild, George W. Childs, and many other prominent gentlemen.

Escaped From Jail.

TIFFIN, O., Sept. 17.—F. B. Brown, recently released from the penitentiary on a parole, grabbed $20 from a man and was arrested here. When the officers from the penitentiary arrived this morning to take him back there, his cell in the city prison was empty, he having sawed his way out during the night.
